

USENIX Annual Fund Donation Form

Many USENIX supporters have joined us in recognizing the importance of open access over the years. We are thrilled to see many more folks speaking out about this issue every day. If you also believe that research should remain open and available to all, you can help. With a tax-deductible donation to the USENIX Annual Fund, you can show that you value our commitment to open access and all our programs that champion diversity and innovation.*

This form should accompany check donations mailed to USENIX. Interested in making a credit card donation? You can do so online at www.usenix.org/support.
